Doctoral Programme in Social Communication

RULES OF PUBLICATION REQUIRED FOR THE DEPOSIT OF THE DOCTORAL THESIS

The requirement is to submit a solitary or co-authored signed publication that meets the criteria specified below.

The contribution must have been published in the time that the doctorate takes place. Accepted publications or publications in the process of being published will be accepted, provided that a certificate from the journal certifying this situation and indicating the expected date of publication is available.

A. SCIENTIFIC ARTICLES

Articles indexed in the MIAR database (<http://miar.ub.edu/>) from the academic fields of social communication, journalism, advertising and public relations, audiovisual communication, film, humanities, political science, sociology, education, psychology, philosophy, history and marketing with an ICDS equal to or higher than 6 are accepted.

B. BOOKS AND BOOK CHAPTERS

Books and book chapters indexed in SPI, Scholarly Publishers Indicators, International and National Rankings of publishing prestige (<http://ilia.cchs.csic.es/SPI/rankings.html>) that are in the first and second quartile for Spanish publishers or in the first, second and third quartile for foreign publishers are accepted.

Conference proceedings are excluded except for those communications that are published peer-reviewed in a journal, in which case the criteria of point A would apply, or as a book chapter in a publishing house. In this case the criteria set out in point B would apply.
